

Please take advantage of these two award-winning films that will serve as important teaching and prevention tools for your school or organization.

Both Ask Us Who We Are and Shout it Out and their educational materials will enhance your ongoing work to create dialogue and understanding around issues that affect many teenagers.

These films are perfect for assemblies, trainings, conferences, health classes, in-service teacher/staff education and instruction, and school board trainings.

- Ask Us Who We Are

A powerful documentary film based on the often hidden lives of youth in foster care. Although the film highlights the heartbreak that many foster care children experience, the film also reveals the tremendous strength and perseverance that grows out of their determination to survive and thrive. Issues explored: family structure, diversity, tolerance, abandonment, post traumatic stress, search for belonging, reunification, resiliency and hope.

- Shout it Out

Winner of the National Education Association's Human and Civil Rights Award for teen empowerment.

A key tool in addressing bullying!

The film is based on 8 months of research with 1000 VT Teens and tells the story of a group of young people making their way through high school. The film follows them through some of the more tumultuous moments of teenage hood. A powerful movie with original music written by teens.

Issues explored: Bullying, academic pressure, friction with peers and teachers, teen pregnancy, sexuality, cutting, class issues, body issues, relationships with parents, trying to fit in, trying to find one's self, fear of the future, nostalgia for the past, friendship, and first love.
